WAX MUSEUM NEWS:

The students have chosen their person of study. Now they need to be reading the biographies/autobiographies. Included in the packet was a biography organizer. It would be helpful to fill this out as the book is being read. Some information may not be found in the book your child has, and it may be necessary to search the internet for more information. If you do not have a computer at home, there will be some time at school for students to search. The Creve Coeur Public Library also has computers available for use. The deadline for reading the book is February 21st. The biography organizer is due February 28th.
