

McEndollar's Memo

02/17/12

There will be no school on Monday, February 20th in honor of President's Day.

Due to reviewing for ISAT testing, we will not have a new reading story or spelling list this week.

Spring pictures will be taken on Wednesday, February 22nd.

The Book It reading goal for February will be 5 points. The reward will be Team Shirt/Jersey/Hat Day. Please continue to encourage your child to read! Congratulations to the following who have met the goal: Najona

WAX MUSEUM NEWS:

The students have chosen their person of study. Now they need to be reading the biographies/autobiographies. Included in the packet was a biography organizer. It would be helpful to fill this out as the book is being read. Some information may not be found in the book your child has, and it may be necessary to search the internet for more information. If you do not have a computer at home, there will be some time at school for students to search. The Creve Coeur Public Library also has computers available for use. The deadline for reading the book is February 21st. The biography organizer is due February 28th.

For the week of February 20-24:

Monday: No school

Tuesday: Biography/Autobiography Verification Slip due

Wednesday: No tests

Thursday: Language test, unit 4
Science test, "Matter"

Friday: No tests
